CAROLYN MOORE

"How is the American prison system unjust and how does it affect people's lives?" Initially I began researching the U.S. prison system, its purposes, its methods, and different statistics regarding the prison population and experiences. I then started to look into specific cases where systemic corruption was shown, such as the Central Park Five Case. Focusing specifically on the history of recent African American incarceration, I thought of ways to portray the U.S. prison system from their perspective in my following artworks.
